

Fire Fighting - Awareness Programme

Programme Overview

The aim of this course is to increase awareness of workplace fires, detail prevention strategies and demonstrate the correct response to a fire by correctly using portable fire fighting appliances.

This course is intended for all employees who require an appreciation of fire awareness, the importance of prevention strategies and an awareness of the correct applications and limitations of portable fire fighting appliances such as fire extinguishers & workplace fire hose reels.

- Recognising unsafe conditions ECO team selection and processes
- Chemistry of fire Evacuation procedures and exercises
- Principles of fire extinguishment Types of emergencies
- Raising the alarm
- Classes of fire
- Determining if it is safe and appropriate to use first attack fire fighting equipment
- Principles of fire approach and fire evacuation.
- Correct selection, use, and application of portable fire fighting extinguishers
- Practical fire fighting with CO2 type fire extinguishers
- Practical demonstration of dry chemical power type and AFF foam type fire extinguishers
- Principles of fire fighting with hose reels / fire blankets
- Procedures to be followed after first attack fire fighting equipment has been used

Certification

This is a non-accredited programme. Participants will receive a Statement of Attendance.

Attendance Numbers

There are a maximum number of 15 participants per program.

Duration

1,5 hours

Location & Delivery

This programme is conducted on site or at a premises nominated by BFT&T.

Additional Information

- To ensure safety of participants, everyone involved in training must be of good health. A minimum dress standard of long sleeve shirts, trousers and enclosed footwear applies.
- All participants must complete a BFT&T Medical Indemnity Form before training will be allowed.
- If training is delivered outside normal business hours (Mon-Fri 7:30am - 5:30pm) a 15% surcharge may apply; and